

Professional Statement

My name is Kamalesh .I am deeply interested in cybersecurity because I see it as the foundation of trust in the digital world. My curiosity and commitment to continuous learning drive me to understand the art and science behind securing systems. I aim to protect people and organizations from cyber threats by applying a disciplined, analytical, and smart approach. As I grow, I aspire to become a reliable professional who contributes meaningfully to strengthening cyber resilience across sectors.